Five Ways Student Loans Impact Credit	When your students borrow federal loans, do they understand the impact it will have on their credit profiles? Unfortunately, many students don't--but they should. Actions taken on their loans during repayment will determine whether they'll have a favorable or unfavorable credit history. Making good decisions can result in them being able to get job, car, or home but poor ones can diminish their options. Join us as we have identified the five ways student loans impact credit and what borrowers can do to make to turn their debt into a major asset in building a good credit report.	GHELC	12/14/17	7:00 a.m. - 8:15 a.m.	https://schools.mygreatlakes.org/web/FAP/training/findAvailableEvents
Establishing Partnerships to Enhance Graduate and Professional Student Financial Literacy	What do you do when a student needs help improving their credit score? Or wants help with investing or retirement planning? What about when they need advice about buying their first home? Join us as we listen to two institutional approaches in supplementing their financial literacy counseling for this particular population of students, since they know graduate and professional students' needs stretch beyond the services they offer. That is why developing partnerships with financial experts who can help these students when the school administrators cannot is very important.	PHEAA	12/14/17	9:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.	https://fedloanservicing.webex.com/mw3100/mywebex/default.do?siteurl=fedloanservicing
Successfully Navigating the Multi-Generational Workplace	The financial aid office often includes employees from the Boomers to the Millennials resulting in various work styles. Do you know how to manage this diversity and build a strong team? The complexities of working in a multi-generational environment can be rewarding if you understand how and why different age groups approach and value their work.	GHELC	12/14/17	10:00 a.m. - 11:15 a.m.	https://schools.mygreatlakes.org/web/FAP/training/findAvailableEvents

Reaping Results with a 12-Month Default Prevention Calendar	Default prevention isn't a one and done activity. Results are achieved when continuous efforts are developed and executed properly. If you're like many schools, you may not have the time or resources required to develop a plan. During this session we'll share manageable default prevention activities for each month of the year. You'll be able to kick off the year on January 1 with a calendar of proven strategies that you can complete each month to manage rates and reap results.	GHELC	12/19/17	10:00 a.m. - 11:15 a.m.	https://schools.mygreatlakes.org/web/FAP/training/findAvailableEvents
