Required Communications

The U.S. Department of Education (ED) and its federal student loan servicers will need to send you required communications and documents related to your federal student aid, such as student loan disclosures and interest statements.

I want to receive these communications:

☒ By email Recommended

☐ By postal mail

Optional Communications

ED and its federal student loan servicers want you to feel confident about the financial aid and student loan process. To help with this, we will sometimes send out information about programs you may be eligible for, such as grant programs, student loan forgiveness programs, income-based repayment plans, and more.

I want to receive these communications:

☐ By email

☐ By text message

! For additional assistance determining what parent information to report on the FAFSA® form, refer to Who's my Parent When Filling Out the FAFSA form? fact sheet.

Since you have been identified as a dependent student, you will need to provide information about your parent(s). You must identify and report information about your parent(s) even if you don't live with him or her. Use the following criteria to determine whose information you should report in the "Parent Demographics" and "Parent Financials" sections of the FAFSA® form:

☐ My parents live together (married or unmarried).

☐ My parents are divorced or separated, and I live with one parent more than the other.

☐ My parents are divorced or separated, and I live with both parents equally.

☐ I was legally adopted.

Dependent Data43

Based on the information you provided, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) located your income tax return. With your permission below, the IRS will securely transfer your tax information to the U.S. Department of Education (ED) to populate any applicable FAFSA® questions.

For your protection, the IRS will not display your tax information and will further encrypt any tax information transferred using the IRS DRT; therefore, ED is unable to display your tax information on your FAFSA form.

The data retrieved from your tax return is limited to the items listed below as you reported to the IRS:

Tax Year	Type of Return Filed	Untaxed Portion of IRA Distributions & Pensions/Annuities
Name(s)	Adjusted Gross Income	Tax-exempt Interest Income
Social Security Number	Income Earned from Work	IRA Deductions and Payments
Filing Status	Income Tax	Status of Amended Returns Received
IRS Exemptions	Education Credits	Schedule 1 Evaluation

Refer to your tax records if you have a question about the values you reported.

By signing this application electronically using your FSA ID (username and password) and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, YOU, THE STUDENT, certify that you

- will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education,
- are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and
- will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one school for the same period of time.

By signing this application electronically using your username and password, and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked to provide

- information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form, and
- U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file.

You also certify that you understand that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on your application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Agreement of Terms

The screenshot shows the 'SIGN & SUBMIT' section of the FAFSA application. The progress bar at the top indicates that 'Student Demographics', 'School Selection', 'Dependency Status', 'Parent Demographics', 'Parent Financials', and 'Student Financials' are completed, while 'Sign & Submit' is the current step. The main heading is 'Read Before Proceeding'. Below this, a text box explains that by signing electronically with an FSA ID, the user certifies the accuracy of the information provided. It lists two items to be verified: 1. Information that will verify the accuracy of the completed form, and 2. U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Further text states that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on the application with the IRS and other federal agencies. A warning states that signing electronically certifies the user is the person identified by the username and password, and that providing false information can result in a fine up to $20,000, imprisonment, or both. At the bottom, there is a checkbox labeled 'I, T Perez, agree to the terms outlined above.' and two buttons: 'Previous' and 'Continue'.
